WORLD'S BEST PLAYERS

TOTO DUTCH DARTS MASTERS

PDC WORLD SERIES

The World Series of Darts event will feature eight of the world's biggest names in darts. Last January, at the inaugural TOTO Dutch Darts Masters, World Champion Luke Humphries, Luke Littler, Michael Smith, Gerwyn Price, and, of course, Michael van Gerwen were present. Additionally, eight top talents from the Netherlands participated, including all the TOTO Dart Kings, such as Raymond van Barneveld, Dirk van Duijvenbode, and Danny Noppert. The upcoming 2025 edition will showcase a similar field of players. The final list of participants will be announced at the end of December.

These world-class competitors will battle it out over two days for the Toon Greebe Award in this World Series of Darts TV event, taking place in Den Bosch, Netherlands, on January 24-25, 2025.

The TOTO Dutch Darts Masters 2025, held at De Maaspoort Business & Events Centre in Den Bosch, will offer an unparalleled hospitality experience, including food and drinks served by our exclusive catering partner.

A close-up, shallow depth-of-field photograph of a social gathering. In the foreground, a hand is pouring champagne from a green bottle into several tall, flute glasses. The champagne is bubbling and creating a white foam. In the background, a dark, round object, possibly a serving tray or a large bowl, is visible, containing several more champagne bottles. The lighting is warm and slightly dim, creating a cozy and festive atmosphere. The text "EXPERIENCE CLASS" is overlaid in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters on the left side of the image.
